

Financial Assistance to the 2004 CEA Meetings at Ryerson University

The CEA hopes that there will be SSHRC funds available for travel assistance to the 2004 CEA Meetings at Ryerson University in Toronto. Official notification of the SSHRC award will not come until April 2004.

The CEA only provides partial travel assistance and applicants should be prepared to fund some travel themselves. Funds will only be available to those located in North America and a strong preference will be given to Canadian applicants. Individuals located outside of North America should not apply.

Eligibility for a travel grant is requires being a currently (2004) paid-up member of the Canadian Economics Association. Individuals may apply for financial assistance now and must be a CEA member at the time of the Meetings in June. Assistance will not be provided unless the application is supported by a signed statement from an appropriate person (e.g. department chair) indicating that travel funds are not available from the member's "employer".

You can download the travel grant application form included here. Send the completed grant application to me by fax or mail.

In mid-April, I will take all the travel grant applications that I have received and provide assistance to persons presenting papers. Of those giving papers, first priority will go to graduate students and second to junior faculty. Individuals will be notified by e-mail and by mail. Successful applicants will receive payment after the Meetings. Be sure to provide complete, accurate and legible e-mail and mailing addresses!

If you have any questions, contact me at denny@chass.utoronto.ca or by fax at 416-978-6713.

Sincerely,

Michael Denny, Secretary-Treasurer, CEA
